From the first edition of Sons of the Wilderness by Charles N. Thompson: "My own interest in the early settlers of Indiana ,vas stimulated anew by my activities in the Society of Indiana Pioneers. While William and John Conner were not widely known, they were typical of their age, and in common with many others made their contribution to the foundation of the state. Professor John C. Parish of the University of California has commented: "Historical understanding is perhaps advanced as much by the biographies of secondary individuals as by the reiterated accounts and appraisals of the lives of the truly great."
