Critically injured in an accident, Diane is nearly dead. But on her way to heaven, she's detained; she finds herself in a place of talking hawks, trickster Coyote, whispery butterflies and limitless possibilities. She's entered an alternate reality - Shaman's Land. With the help of beings she learns are her guides and her power animals, she discovers how to heal herself of childhood abuse and trauma, and how to help others, too. Ultimately this detour leads to the biggest decision of Diane's life; while in Shaman's Land, she comes to understand that Home may not be where she thought it was.
