Sam and Evie - A Lost Highlander Novella Cassidy Cayman

Evelyn Merkholtz never dreamed she'd be an unemployed single mother in a foreign land. When her ex convinces her to move back in with him until she can find a job, she jumps at the chance to leave the spooky old castle she's been living in with her batty billionaire best friend.

Sam seems to have completely moved on - and she has too, of course - so it should be a breeze living with him in his cozy little cottage. There's absolutely no danger they'll get back together. Except he's such a good dad, and she finds herself staring at the spot near his collarbone she used to love to kiss, that it gets harder to remember why they broke up in the first place.

Sam and Evie is a standalone novella in the Lost Highlander series.

Other books in the series:

Lost Highlander <Reunited

Revenge

Reckoning

Smitten by the Spinster

Wild about the Witch

All for the Heiress
