Shanta learns there's more to a marriage than just a ring, when she finds herself in a desperate place and every woman's nightmare. Phillip is faithful to a fault and blinded by love, yet, he quickly learns no matter who or how much you love, nothing can prepare you for the unexpected. How wrong do things have to be before you realize they'll never be right? And when a child has to choose between her mother and her father, she does so, by knowing the difference between right and wrong. Finally, after all the tears and hurt, the sun does shine, but does it come too little or too late for a family that's on the brink of destruction.
