The Proverbs 31 Lady and Other Impossible Dreams Marsha Drake

Delightfully Humorous Reading With an Important Message for Twentieth-Century Christian Women.

"I was lying in bed reading my Bible and eating a large bowl of popcorn, trying not to get grease stains on the pages when I found a description of the 'woman of all women.' My husband's snores and relaxed face assured me that I was not bothering him with the light, so I read on - "

Thus begins the author's quest toward patterning her life after the woman "far above rubies" the administrator, seamstress, and chef par excellence, the one whose children blessed her and whose husband praised her.

Becoming "a virtuous woman" from the inside out!
