The Sons of Perdition: They say they came from above... Alex Lindsey

Whatever happened to the Fallen Angels of Genesis? Their offspring perished in the flood, but they've continued to rule the fallen world from the shadows, from the world unseen – until now! While massive armies prepare to march across a dry Euphrates river, sons of the Fallen Ones seek to open a gate to the underworld to claim their unholy inheritance - the lost souls of humanity (for the most horrible of purposes), and the immortal DNA from their banished fathers. FBI agent Brooke Decker and CIA agent Dillon Knowles are reunited, once again caught up in an apocalyptic struggle that takes them from ancient secrets buried in Antarctica, underground cloning laboratories, demons masquerading as aliens to deceive mankind, and an old Crusader map leading to the very seat of the dark power that controls the world governments - and the horrific truth of why human souls are so sought after by the underworld. The battle for the souls of man continues in this latest thriller from the author of the top rated novel The Man of Lawlessness.
