Special Revised edition to commemorate the 40th anniversary of this unsolved murder: This is the true story of one man's quest to help investigate and overturn the murder conviction of Stephen Downing - jailed more than 27 years before - for a brutal murder than he did not commit. It also highlights the dangerous roller-coaster ride endured by the author during his attempts to reveal fresh evidence that the authorities deliberately tried to hide. The book now includes Times writer Matthew Parris's own personal and honest account of what he thinks he could and should have done regarding this murder case when he was a former MP. Dubbed by the national press as the 'Bakewell Tart' murder, the original hardback book soon became a best seller and real life thriller. It was later adapted into a popular two-part BBC1 TV drama, produced by Hat Trick Productions, starring Stephen Tompkinson, Caroline Katz and all-star cast that attracted over 9M viewers for each night of shown. It was later distributed by BBC Worldwide and appeared on television in numerous countries to global acclaim. This book has now been produced for the first time ever in paperback during 2013 to commemorate the tragic 40th anniversary of the unsolved murder of Wendy Sewell.
