Skittish Lovers: Morningside Meadow Novella (Volume 1) Candace Laidlaw

Share the joy and adventures of the people of Morningside Meadow in Skittish Lovers, the series' debut novel. As a young military brat, Ben Holbrook realized he'd never had a real home, only a place to sleep before moving onto another spot. Someday, he vowed to find a space that felt comfortable. And it need not be perfect, simply a nice place to live and work. Fed up with cities, he leaves his position on LAPD's mega-force to become a deputy sheriff in the Morningside Meadow. As one of twelve sworn officers, he's charged with the safekeeping and security of the town and portions of the surrounding county. Ben's cabin sits forty minutes from the mile-high western town of 600 souls sits. From his front porch, he watches hawks soar, and views spectacular sunsets. While the scenery of the Sierra Nevada Mountains appeals to him, the town's residents fascinate him. •He makes friends with his nearest neighbors, Ty and Linda O'Neill. The brother and sister team own and manage Ty's Bar. Ben makes a habit of dropping in there after work. •Molly, a cocktail waitress, can remember everyone's order yet dances into the shadows when she sees a stranger. Ben wonders what is driving her into the darkness. Her best friend and confidant is Ty's cook. If Turk knows what drives skittish Molly from the light, he's not telling Ben or Ty. •Linda O'Neill fascinates Ben. While she is the woman he plans to marry, she does her best to avoid him. Month after month, he tries patiently to woo her but the skittish woman appears immune to his efforts. When a blizzard leaves her stranded, he goes to her rescue. Months later, when Linda's best friend becomes a hostage Ben tries to negotiate her release. As months go by, Ben finds a growing sense of belonging and contentment in a place that snags his heart. One day, he simply knows that he's found his home. Come join Ben and meet the people of Morningside Meadow in Skittish Lovers, three contemporary tales about life's greatest adventure—searching for love.
