"The Brotherhood of Drew Hall" is a worthy journey. It is a book like no other about young men who turned their dreams into reality. They are positive role models and men you would be proud of and proud to know... I am. Aside from the superb textbook education that Howard provides, it also instills in its students a reason to "never forget where you came from" after you leave the ivory towers of college life and go back and serve our communities. My Drew Hall Brothers came to Howard from a segregated South knowing it was a privilege that came with great expectation and responsibility to "give back" as they succeed moving forward.
