The Parent Soup Baby Name Finder: Real Advice from Real Parents Who Have Named Their Babies and Lived to Tell About It... Kate Hanley

When you need advice from other parents who have named their babies and lived to tell the tale Your husband wants a junior. Your mother keeps hinting at an archaic family name. Your best friend is pushing the name Jeremiah. And you haven't even started thinking about what will happen if the baby is a girl! Take a deep breath because help is at hand. Parent Soup--the ultimate on-line destination for parents--has collected more than 15,000 names from its popular "Baby Name Finder" and the best advice from real parents who have already played the name game. Read this book and get insight on everything you need to know when choosing a name, such as:

- How to deal with flak from family and friends You'll learn how to answer the question, "You're going to name the baby what?!"
- Surefire ways to end the spouse wars Yes, there is hope when you say John and he says Gianni (and you're wondering if you really want to have a child with this person).
- How to know when you've found a keeper Learn to recognize when it's time to put away the books and start getting used to the name you'll be saying at least 37 times a day from now on.
